

Understanding and sensing the Akasha

20 January 2014

Hathors, Kryon: Channelled live by Andras Adam

Gaia: Channelled live by Gabor Stickel

Written version: Maria Safrany

Translation: Andrea Gurubi

To help the reader, this channelling has been revisited to provide even clearer understanding. Often what happens live has implied energy within it, which carries a kind of communication that the printed page does not.

Greetings to all of you my dears, I am Kryon of the Magnetic Service.

This will be a short introduction now, and a bit later, soon, I will tell you more about this. My aim with this short introduction is to really help you to calm you mind; that you can get to know and feel God, to sense God inside you. We are preparing for wonderful things today, we have wonderful things for you today and we are grateful that you are ready for this information, that you have reached such resonance level, that we can tell you great many things about the Akasha.

Perhaps, the information we provided in the past about the Akasha, maybe it didn't even reach you. You didn't read it, or heard about it, because you were not on the right resonance lever, but today you already are. You came here, because we called you here, the spirit called you here to tell you who you are and why you are the person who you are. To tell you why your life is happening on the way how it is, or why it turned out the way it did. So that at last you shall see clearly, you shall feel and sense clearly. To help you cease feeling that you are a victim, that at last you don't feel guilty anymore – whatever you did or do.

We ask you now, I Kryon ask you now to consciously let go of everything, close everything out of yourself, everything my dear. You shall have only one thing inside you, which is no other than love. Do not have anything else, don't have anything around you, nothing. I am the lover of humankind and I am here only to help, to help people in awakening and in recognition.

My dear, this is all I wanted to say as introduction. Our aim today is for you to see the truth and to realise why you are here and why you are like this.

Thank you for listening to me and for letting me tell you these things. I shall speak again soon.

Greetings to you my beloved children, it's Mother Earth talking to you.

What could I tell you now at the beginning? Shall I say I envy you? This would be strange, wouldn't it? You wouldn't know how to take it, right? Why is that I, Gaia, envy you? Well, I tell you why. Because you can live this through, you can experience all that means your life and all that belongs to you, all things that is you, you - yourself.

You came down to a world that you cannot even imagine in its fullness, you cannot imagine what exactly it is. You are scratching the surface of it, you are still scratching only the surface of the entire being. What does mankind do? Spying, watching, experiencing – but what range, which part is examined? The part that can be touched, what he can experience with his sensory organs that he brought to the physical being. But what happens nowadays? What is happening in the last few years?

If you look back on your life, something has entered into it that you didn't know what to do with. Such a factor has entered into your life that somehow didn't fit in the full picture. How and why did this happen, why did this something enter into your life? Because something has happened to you that you couldn't explain. Something happened to you that didn't fit into your physical being and nobody could tell you what has actually happened and why. And man started to search. Man started to search in a direction that has never been seen or experienced before. First they were searching by mind about what could have happened. Then they realised that feeling can help more, because feeling includes much more.

This is still so, but something has changed: your experience, your knowledge, your way of thinking have changed already. You have changed that much that you can allow yourself to notice what is outside of your physical sensing. You already allow yourself to deal with things that maybe you cannot touch. Many times you watch yourself to see what you're doing, you examine yourself why you're doing those things that you actually do and why exactly on the way how you do them.

My children, you start to realise things, you start to feel things and start to accept them at last without wanting to analyse them, without wanting to fit them into the 3D thinking and into all those knowledge that you received here, that you gathered here now on the planet.

In order to move on, to move further ahead so that you could really get to know yourself, that you could practically understand all that is here – not only on the planet, but at all that exists -, for this you have to allow even more. You have to allow the feeling that is there inside you, to take you even further. There are such situations when you can suppress it, but it comes up more and more often and shows you that there is something else too.

Man will reach a point, a situation, a state when they will not want to know the why anymore, but will just allow the events to happen. Then the world will open up, the world that was hidden so far will open for them. People will start to understand their memories, they will start to understand why they do certain things. Will start to understand why certain things have happened in their life, why their path is going in the direction where it goes. These are things that show beyond the physical existence, beyond the physical level, beyond this resonance that you call physical existence.

In order to learn why you are here and why you live on the way you do, why in this country where you are, why you are the person who you are, and why your family is your family now in this physical form on Earth – for this knowledge you need to dig into a world that, at the moment, still shows mostly beyond a level that you could understand. But I ask you not to let this hold you back, not to let this make a burden in you way, because if you dare to enter, it will serve you, it will be for your benefit, it will help your life, it will help your understanding and will support you that you never again have doubts about yourself and about your life. It will support you in understanding, at least at some level, why you have this life what you have now.

This is an entirely different world, but when you look around you can see that something is starting off on an everyday level too. Man has started to unfold the world that could mean the future. This is a world that goes beyond physics, that goes beyond the physics on Earth. It already links to another system and this is the base for your existence here, the base for this whole world to be here. Do not back off. Do start to research the world that you call quantum-physics. You don't need to be a physician, you don't need to dig into it too deep, but you need to understand it. There already are possibilities where you can understand it with your sober human-mind, that right now helps your life – at least you would occupy yourself a bit. You would be dealing with something that really takes you forward, that really lets you have an insight into the existence, an insight that shows you how your universe works and how it connects to other dimensions.

What will you do my child when all those things we talked about, all that starts to surface – when your past appears? One of your pasts that you don't even know about and you don't really understand it either why it's connected to you. And this is only a very simple part of all that is represented by that world, by that system. This is only the most, the most easily understandable part of it, because this is what you can most easily connect to. Don't worry, you will receive the other parts too and it will confuse you pretty well, so that you get a feeling how confusingly these threads can be interconnected with each other, and how many things in your life can be influenced by them. If I'd start listing them now we would be sitting here till the morning.

Please be content with that much, that knowing about this is an important part of your life and it is also time to look into it more deeply. You should make an effort to know more about this part of the existence, in order to be able to understand future discoveries, the medicine of the future and so on, I could carry on listing. To be able to do this, you need to have a glimpse into this part. You don't need to learn it, just allow that being who lives inside you, who is also here with me – one leg here, one leg there – and who knows exactly what I'm talking about – just allow it to show you, at last just allow it to connect your physical being with your part that is here with me.

It won't be an easy task and if you hear the teachings today, well, you may not be in the mood to do it. But I trust you! We mentioned it already, you are here because you are capable of this, you are able to feel it, and you are capable to understand certain parts of it. You should be proud of yourself because it will go very differently and if you can feel all what we would like to give you today, then you will return home as a new person.

Believe me, this is one of the most beautiful thing in this existence. But in order to experience this you need to allow yourselves, you need to let yourselves to flow with this feeling – then you can experience this wonderful thing that we call existence.

This is all I wanted to say and this is all I wanted to give you. I will stay with you to help you till the end. Now I say goodbye. The blessings of the heavens shall be with you.

Oh my dears, how I wish you could see yourselves now! Time will come – I Kryon, tell you – time will come when you can see all what we can see. But as so many other things, this also depends on you. You don't have a switch that we could just turn on for you to see better. If only there was, we would have switched it on thousands of years ago for humanity to avoid going into this darkness.

We called you here today, we've organized this event today – my partner was cautious about it because he has already received information from this. But he said, the people who will come, they are surly ready to hear this, to feel this. There are so many doubtful people in the world, they don't believe that a spirit could manifest through another human being this way. What happens with my partner now is: his personality withdraws to the side and allows space for us. We don't take over the lead from him – we say this again, like so many times before – we don't take it over, we just ask to borrow it, for a short time we borrow an energy-grade that we consider clear enough to pass on the words of the spirit. When this is done, then the personality of my partner returns to place. Maybe you don't see a big difference, maybe you don't feel a noticeable difference. And this is exactly why people have doubts about this.

You, who are here, came here because you've already reached a level where you would be capable of this, you could already do this too, only the filters in your brain won't let you do it yet. This is why – and let us face the akasha sharply – my dears, this is why so many – like 90% of people – are unsatisfied with their life, because they don't understand why they are still here, why their life is still happening this way. My dears, it's because the filter of your mind, the filters surrounding your mind still work rather intensely.

This is natural, this is not unnatural, for this belongs to humans.

Your akasha, your akasha chronicle – or call it whatever you want – includes everything, the imprints of good, the guilt, the punishment, the imprints of bad too, the negative thoughts, the positive happenings. It includes everything, but it is well hidden from you, it is hidden in your DNA. And your akasha tries to send you messages from your DNA, through your DNA, its message tries to reach you through the mind, through the pineal-gland into the heart and then to the brain.

Yes, this is such a complicated system. And this is what you would need to understand and you would need to accept, but only in that case if you want to go through a spiritual development, a spiritual elevation. This is how the system works. Your akasha is hidden in your DNA, through the DNA, through the pineal-gland tries to reach into your brain, but the filters filter it, your mind, your ego also filters it and this is why you don't hear your DNA, this is why you cannot hear your akasha. So many times we've told you already, the DNA, the akasha speaks to you ...

I tell you the reasons, because this is why you came here for. I tell you the reason for you to see clearly why you cannot hear your akasha from your DNA. The reason is quite simple. The reason is called: karma. It's because of the karma that you cannot hear it. In 2014 it's still because of your karma that you cannot hear your akasha. Listen now, because now I'm going to give it a twist. Don't forget what I've just said, but pay attention now. It's for your karma that you cannot hear it, and it's because of your karma that you can actually hear it. This is esoteric information, you will understand it in a moment. Your akasha includes everything, good and bad – as I've mentioned before. Your karma, the whole lot is also there in your karma, all that is your past. And listen now: this is what you have to put down, what you should have put down a long time ago.

The ego? This is where the filter comes into the picture, the filter surrounding your brain, the ego. Because the ego intensifies the karma, it intensifies the energy of the past, the bad things. This is why you still bring up the bad things from your akasha. The bad things are what you still call upon from your akasha today. I've asked you more than 20 years ago to put down the karma, to let go of the past. It is written in the first Kryon book. Look it up and check it. I've already told then, there is no change, no shift without this.

And here you are in 2014, in the year of recognition. And let this be the first – that you are here where you are because you are still living your past, you are still living your karma. You still let your ego to produce fear and worry. You still let your ego to take the lead and make you feel sorry for others. Who feels sorry for you? Who attends to you? You can be a victim, as it is there in your karma and in the dark side of the akasha. This is a system, my dear. This is why it happens or it doesn't happen when you really want to let go of something, or when you really want to have something. This is why you cannot receive yet, this is why you don't receive yet those information and this is why those events that would be worthy of humans don't happen yet.

This is not easy, my dear, it is really not easy to express this in such form that humans can understand. My partner is sweating from this too, because it's difficult for him to translate this and pass the information on to you. He has to express it precisely and gently. This is where you are at the moment, my dear. But now we called you here in order for you to finally get rid of this old pattern. Today you have the possibility, since both, the energies present here and the energy of the Moon, are helping you in this process to finally erase it. Then at last information about positive things will reach from your akasha through your DNA, through the pineal-gland into your brain and into your heart.

Many times, many of you asked my partner: Why do I step into the same paddle all the time? Why does always the same thing happen to me? Why does it happen what is happening to me now, even though I meditate, I ask, I speak to the spirit, I cancel vows, I make new vows?

My dears, you come to an event like this or to a similar one, you ask for erase, you ask for karma-release from us as well as from my partner, you've said it many times. Then you leave the room, you go home and it's possible, that already on the way home you already complain on the same way, and on the same way you still don't understand. The next day at your work place, you again don't understand, why you are there, why does it happen to you. As usual, you worry about money, about health, about relationship, about family, you worry on the same way. So you carry on the karma, and you call upon the bad things from your akasha. What do you think of it, if I tell you: today you can actually put an end to this and from tomorrow light-information shall reach from your akasha through your DNA, through the pineal-gland to your brain?

Before you would say –I want it and I will do it – let me tell you about something. You will say: yes, I want it – I know you, I know how much you want this. Imagine, you are in the darkest possible room, – like you would say – where you cannot even see to the tip of your nose. Your eyes open wide, because you want to see. Your mind wants to see even those things that are not there. Your mind wants to see in the dark too. Your mind wants to control the darkness too.

And all of a sudden it happens, somebody suddenly turns on some incredibly strong spotlights and then for a few seconds, or even minutes, you will not see anything. Nothing my dear, only the blinding light. And you know, what you do? You will close your eyes, because you function by instinct, in such case the human survival instinct turns on immediately, because it receives the closeness of the light as danger. Human mind takes it as danger, translates it as a source of danger, blinds, kills, cannot see, doesn't know what happens. Interesting, you didn't worry in the dark, though you could not see there either. But you will be afraid of the blinding light and you will worry, because you cannot see. This is how the mind works. The survival instinct turns on immediately.

If today you say – and you stick to it – that you will finally erase your karma, and through your DNA you only call upon light-information from your akasha, then you let your pineal-gland tingle, maybe to hurt a little bit, and from there you let the information of the spirit, of the akasha, of the DNA reach your brain – your mind will want to turn on the survival instinct. This is a human program, which is very difficult to cut off. This is one of the most difficult thing. I have already mentioned this a lot in the past. Some can do it successfully, some cannot.

And this is when it happens that the information of light starts to blinds you. You will feel like you have lost control over your life, because your ego, your mind will take it like this, the filters will work this way and will pass such information to your brain that you've lost control over life.

You don't have to believe what you hear today, you don't have to follow it. But I, Kryon, tell you the opposite: with this you will actually trigger off to finally gain control over your life, that at last you can live your own life. Things have happened to you, yes. You carry the weights over thousands of years. Even in this life, you've added to it. You experienced things. You have been used, taken advantage of, cheated, ripped-off, humiliated. You've made mistakes. All humans make mistakes, everybody, only it makes a difference how quickly they forgives themselves and to the other party. It matters how quickly they can move on and leave it behind, or whether they get stuck in the situation and bring up the dark information from their akasha again.

It won't be easy, 2014, my dears, it won't be an easy year, because this year, in the year of recognition, we would like to give even more information about the relation between the akasha and the DNA. The knowledge, the energy – that is needed for your enlightenment –, cannot flow until you really let go of your karma and you start consciously cut off those things that tie you to your past, that tie you to your worries, that generate fear in you.

What are you the most afraid of? This is a simple question. You don't have to answer it loud, just ask yourself honestly. What are you the most afraid of?

Next question: Who do you want to suit the most? And why?

A little while ago I talked about Atlantis, about what happened there, and how it happened. I talked to you about Lemuria, about what happened there and how it happened. An energy flow was initiated, information was launched that is based on reality, only there is no need to give it so much emphasis. All people punished themselves for Atlantis. Almost everybody thought that it sank because of him. I have told this information before and will do it now again – remember, or who wasn't there, should know – that it wasn't your fault that Atlantis was sank. It wasn't your fault. The energies changed and the Earth had to reshape with the help of Gaia.

Couple of years ago in the universe the Earth was referred to as Dark Earth. Gaia was not too happy about this, Gaia wasn't happy and didn't agree either. But she knew very well that her children headed the wrong way. But she also knew they will make good decisions and they will avoid Armageddon. Gaia and the humanity avoided devastation. This is why you are here today. Thanks to you and Gaia's endurance.

Let me talk to you about Gaia a bit more, about her connection to the human-akasha. Take a deep breath now and exhale it. There is a part of your akasha – if you prefer, there is a chapter – that is joint with Gaia. We call it: the Akasha of Humans and Gaia. Have you noticed why you like being here? Has it ever struck you why you like being on Earth so much? Why do you come back here so many times? Why do you want to be here? Has it struck you why you're already writing your next life? Because the Human-Gaia akasha is infinite.

Do you know how Gaia works? Hm, yes. The same as humans. Gaia reacts to what humans do. This is how it was in the past too, it was the same in Lemuria, in Atlantis too. It was the same with the energies. Gaia always reacted to human activity on one way or another, because this is your common akasha, this is your joint contract. If you hear of earthquake, volcanic eruption, flood, or any other natural disaster, then from now on you should not think anymore that Gaia, Mother Earth is upset and has an angry tantrum. Instead, you should remember that Gaia is doing what she has to according to your contract and Gaia is helping people to maintain life on this wonderful planet, to maintain life on her body. All she asks you is to really bring forward only light-information from your akasha at last.

My dears, regarding the akasha, let me tell you another information that I already mentioned in the past but it sank into oblivion. Let's start with the DNA. As we said, the first layer of the DNA is coded. The other layers are not, all others are changing – on the same way as humans change, how their consciousness changes. It results from this, my dear – believe it or not – this is how you can change the akasha, this is how you can gain more and more new information, since the akasha is hidden in the DNA.

Why do you still enjoy suffering, why do you still need it, why do you want it? And now you tell me: Kryon, I do not enjoy the suffering, but this is what always comes, this is still there.

Do listen to this material again. Or read it several times when it's noted down and dig into it. Go back to the past for information that I passed you earlier, because not only you need to understand this, but you also need to feel it.

The akasha is not an enemy. Your karma is not an enemy. Your ego is not an enemy. These are all there – not only because you've asked for them – but also for you to be able to finally liberate yourself. So that at last, humans could once again take their well deserved place on this planet and live as free people. But in order for this to happen, first you have to liberate yourself, yourself from weights that others put on your shoulders, because you allowed them to do so. Because you live the life of other people and it's still other people's life that you want to resolve, instead of resolving your own at last. Your own, my dear. You don't need to agree with me, but life will prove me. It's ok to love and adore somebody, anybody, but do not be inferior to them, do not become a victim.

I've prepared something for today, something that we've never done before in this country, that I've never asked from any of my channels before. Not only because it would have been early, but also because you wouldn't have understood it yet. Let's hope there will be some who join us now and ask for such a karma release that is exceptional. Nothing is obligatory! I've talked about what will happen when you call upon the light-information from your akasha, instead of the dark-information. You should make your decision accordingly, my dear, so then you can let of your karma and finally you stop carrying your karma, you stop dealing with the dark things.

Before we get involved in this, there is something else that is connected to your akasha. Hm. This place is called the Cave of Creation that has a crystal-structure, which is a crystal. And yes, it is hidden on Earth on a way that humans can never find it. They won't, however much they are searching, they won't find it. Humans cannot find this. Your akasha is also affected by what is written in your crystal. Hm, these are esoteric information, maybe you don't understand it now, but when you are born to here, you have the knowledge, you have everything that you take with you, but when you're born, then a karma-release starts, that takes place at a speed that you set yourself. God won't make you hurry up, God won't tell you: right now! These are options and advices. Oh, how many more there will be, my dear!

But it is up to you when positive energies, positive information can reach you from the Cave of Creation, from your akasha and from your DNA. You don't need to do a lot, only live your life consciously this way. Gaia is waiting for you, people are waiting for you. You are the ones marching at the front, you are the old souls who are able to do this. But you are also those, old souls, who keep the old here on this planet. Yes, you are. And you also need to hear this, you are that old soul, you are those who keep the past here too. It is your children who are clearly born with the new, with the new energy. Their akasha is new. When will yours be new?

What kind of life do you mean for your children? To your grandchildren? Old soul, you are here to erase the old, to help the children and also to be able to renew yourself, so that your akasha can renew too and those filters around your brain can disappear finally, so then your merkaba, your energy field can purify.

I am Kryon of the Magnetic Service, the lover of humankind. I saw how the nets were reset: the magnetic net, the crystal net and human conscious net is the next. Old soul, have others told you that you are a shaman? Have you been told that you are a healer? Have you been told, you are a piece of Jesus? Have you been told, you are a piece of God? So why, why do you bring forth the dark life from your akasha? Why do you still cause yourself suffering? Why do you not want to do something consciously for your happiness, to actually bring forth light-information from your akasha through your DNA?

At the earliest – no need to rush, but the Pleiadians are round the corner. Who will open the door for them? You received DNA from them, a level of the DNA. They would like to work with you again, in order for the Earth to become the shiniest planet of the universe again. Why do you still live like this?

My dear, where do you know it from, that you still live your karma?

Oh, I have a simple answer to this. It's possible that you may not agree with it – you know you still live your karma, because you don't live in love yet, you don't live in peace, don't live in balance and harmony. You live in fear. You don't live – and listen now – you don't live in open colonies where i.e. there are solar cells on the roof. This is a simple example. From this you know that you still live your karma, that you sacrifice yourself for others, that you make something depend on something else, so you don't do this-thing till you first resolve that-thing. How do you know doing this-thing won't resolve that-thing? It can be anything. The information doesn't go through your filter until you actually erase your karma for good.

You will see my dear, a new akasha will be born soon, a new DNA will be born soon, a new man will be born soon. About this new man, his family, his acquaintances, his friends will say: we don't like you, we don't like you this way, cannot have a good argument with you, you don't answer back, you agree, you even say smart things, this bothers us. If you live that way and you hear these comments, then you've started to live without karma. Are you listening? Then you've started living without karma.

Then let us get to this exceptional thing, which will be very strange for you. But still, I ask you to repeat it aloud, like my partner will say it, so that your cells can hear it. Didn't I mention it, did I leave it out from the system, that your cells can hear everything and they act accordingly? Oh, sorry, did I forget to mention that your cell system belongs here too? And that everything happens the way how you say it, how you live? Because your cells multiply this way, they develop in that energy. Sorry, I forgot to mention this. This is a proper system and for this reason we will talk more about it, because one occasion is not enough for this.

And here we go – and if you need to, do laugh, do guffaw about it. But time has come that in this region too – because you are ready for this – we shall conduct such karma release that can be heard by your cells.

Follow my partner and say with him the following. Well ... it is not a demonstration, only karma release (Kryon is smiling)

OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
OUT WITH THE KARMA! OUT WITH THE KARMA!
I'VE PUT MY KARMA DOWN! I'VE PUT MY KARMA DOWN!
I'VE PUT MY KARMA DOWN! I'VE PUT MY KARMA DOWN!
I DON'T HAVE KARMA ANYMORE! I DON'T HAVE KARMA ANYMORE!
I DON'T HAVE KARMA ANYMORE! I DON'T HAVE KARMA ANYMORE!

Take a deep breath and exhale it with ease.

Can you imagine that this was chanted by thousands in Italian, in Spanish, in English? And the room was filled with sound?

Have a look how Italy will change. Have a look at Argentina and Chile. Look up Canada and see how it changes. Not their weather forecast, because they will have problems with that still. And have a look at your own life too, look at the Carpathian-basin, Hungary and how it will change. Or have I forgotten to tell you that you are carrying the karma of the country too? (Kryon is laughing) That is why you are here now as Hungarian!

As I said, this will happen, this will take a positive turn when you leave from here, then you will leave proud. Proud, my dear. You will be proud of yourself. And let me give you an advice: Look at events in the world – and listen now, you may not like this – look at events in the family like an outsider. Would you like to help Gaia? Would you like to help to humanity? These are necessary. I have told you: depending on which side of the fence you land, live accordingly!

There is one thing left from me: talk to your akasha and ask, ask it – so that your cells can hear it too – and say only this much: My dear akasha, I only accept light-information. We are together creating a new akasha that serves Gaia and humanity.

The energies will change now, my dears, because the new akasha has started to work.

It depends on you how long your akasha stays hidden in your DNA. It depends on you when it passes through your pineal-gland and the filters and when it arrives at your brain.

This is why the Hathors are left to the end. They will – and you can feel it already – they will fiddle your pineal-gland a bit. You don't need to do anything, anything my dear, only give permission to yourself that your elder brothers can help with the sound frequencies – because they won't talk this time –, give permission that they can help this process that we have stated. I am proud of you. My only question is – and answer me so your cells can hear it too – are you proud of yourself? (quiet yes) I have to go to the otology, I didn't hear this: Yes, I am proud of myself. (Everybody aloud: Yes, I am proud of myself.)

Hm. This is all, so easy. It's easy, isn't it? If after this somebody doesn't understand why his/her life works this way, (Kryon laughs) then don't come to me, for I have already said everything today. But we will continue, it will continue, my dears.

The blessings of the heavens shall be with you, the blessings of the heavens.
